

What We Do

The Portsmouth Site Specific Advisory Board is a stakeholder board that provides advice to the Department of Energy (DOE) regarding environmental cleanup activities at the Portsmouth site. The primary mission of the board is to provide informed recommendations on major issues regarding environmental restoration, waste management, and related cleanup activities to the DOE.

